General Presentations:

Rural Local Identities and Globalization	XIII
Giacomo Becattini, Luigi Omodei Zorini
Outlook on some productive aspects and development projects in three rural areas of Tuscany: Chianti, Mugello and Pratomagno	XXIX
Caterina Contini

WORKSHOP 1

Concepts and methodologies

Session I: Target group and participation

Integration and Assessment of Participatory Approaches in Development Projects	1
Heinz-Peter Wolff, Werner Doppler
Methodological Aspects of Identifying Community Matrix Leaders	10
Mihai Pascaru
Towards Impact Assessment of Transdisciplinary Research Programmes	19
Uwe Jens Nagel and Thomas Aenis

Session II: GIS and applications

The potential of gis analyses in farming systems development. The case of Al Faria'a basin- western of the Jordan valley	30
Thameen Hijawi
A gis-based multicriteria decision support sytem approach to modelling the effects of land use changes on farm income and land degradation at watershed scale	39
C. Mora, D. Menozzi, N. Dall'Olio
A methodology for integration of rural buildings in the landscape: localization study by geographic information systems	50
J. Hernández, L. García, F. Ayuga

Session III: Modelling and modelling approaches

- Epistemological Basis for a Decision Making Model in the Rural Households 59
Ivan Malevolti
- Efficient Farming Systems Modelling: an Application of Compromise Programming 70
G.N.Nagaraja, Lalith Achoth, Muthappa, P.P.
- Contribution of the Fuzzy Theory to Farming System Methodology - Fishermen in Western Tocantins, Brazil 79
Marcos Alves dos Reys

Session IV: Sustainability in practical cases

- Sustainable Technology Development Applied to Livestock Industry in The Netherlands 89
SF Spoelstra, J.W.A. Langeveld, P.W.G. Groot Koerkamp, J. Luttik, G.B.C. Backus, J. Grin
- Collective Innovation in Local Identities as Linked to Interactions Between Equivalence Positions: the Enlightening Case of Wine Cooperatives in Languedoc (France) 110
Yuna Chiffolleau

WORKSHOP 2

Resilience and continuity of small scale farming within sustainable rural livelihood systems

Session I: Biodiversity and Organic Farming

- Can farm resilience be built through organic farming? 123
Rebecka Milestad, Ika Darnhofer, Sonja Hadatsch
- How Farmers Use Agrobiodiversity to Cope with Climatic Variability and Community Change 132
François-Noël Reyniers, Nicole Sibelet and Emmanuel Torquebiau
- “Consumers’ attitude towards organic foods in the region of magnesia, Greece” 141
H. Theodoropoulos, C. Barda, C. D. Apostolopoulos

Session II: small scale farming in countries undergoing transition

- Private Farming in Russia: a Thorny Path to Revival 149
Zemfira I. Kalugina

Household, Regional and Local Differences in Support for Sustainable. Small Scale Farming in Russia: Survey Results from Three Villages 158
David J. O'Brien, Valeri V. Patsiorkovski

Subsistence farming in bulgaria: between tradition and the market 168
Niveln Noev, Diana Kopeva, Erik Mathijs

Session III: small scale farming in countries undergoing transition

Global fresh fruit system and small scale farming. Controls and resistences in an argentinian case 178
Monica Bendini, Pedro Tsakoumagkos

Herd management strategies and long-term household survival in low input systems: the case of the arid Andes 188
M. Tichit , B. Hubert, L. Doyen, D. Genin,

Processes of liberalization and family farm restructuring in Tunisia 198
Alia Gana

Soil Degradation and Sustainability of Small and Medium Sized Farms in the Plovdiv Region, Bulgaria 208
Stefan Bäckman, Timo Sipiläinen, Alexi Alexiev

Session IV: Farming, Rural Development and Rural Policy

The role of producer groups in maintaining family-run beef farming. From cooperative principles to market practices: the example of charolais farming in Burgundy 217
Hélène Bardey

The Impact of the Policy Framework on Dynamics of Mountain Farming in Austria 229
Thomas Dax

Are part-time and absent small farmers rational? Questioning Nobel Economics Laureate Theodore W. Schultz 239
Jian-Ming Zhou

WORKSHOP 3

Rural/Urban relations

The Concept of Rurality and the Rural-Urban Relationship as Perceived by Young People 253
Bernardo De Gennaro, Andrea Fantini

The Role of Urban Tourists in the Sustainable Development of Rural Areas: a Lebanese Case Study Marwan Owaygen	264
A Rural to Live, a Rural to Visit: Visitor's and Inhabitant's Perceptions of the Environment in Two Portuguese Rural Areas Elisabete Figueiredo	275
Key issues in rural-urban relations in Poland: between peasant past and European future Krzysztof Gorlach, Grzegorz Foryś	289
Consumer's view on agricultural products produces with low quality water. A case from Jordan Mohammad Majdalawi	299
Strategies of Social Reproduction and Pluriactivity among the Family Farmers of The South of Brazil Marco Antônio Verardi Fialho, Lovois de Andrade Miguel, Carlos Guilherme Adalberto, Mielitz Netto	309

WORKSHOP IV

Quality of life, food, landscape, environment: from rural resources to better livelihood systems for people

Session I Multifunctionality and Diversification

Rural Buildings Of Mountain Regions In Galicia: A Resource To Increase In Value Xoán Carlos Carreira Pérez, Elena Fernández Rodríguez, R. Mariño Allegue	323
Combining Agricultural Production and Care for Persons with Disabilities: a New Role of Agriculture and Farm Animals Jan Hassink	332
Landscape and Heritage as strategic resources for rural development. The example of the Serra da Lousã Mountain (Central Portuguese mountain range) Paulo de Carvalho	342
Farmers' Willingness to Carry Out Wildlife Habitat Improvement Actions - Results of a Cvm Experiment F. Spalatro, M. Genghini, G. Bazzani	354

Multifunctionality in the Rural Mediterranean: Impacts of Policies in the Case of Greece and Spain	364
Jose Barrio e Eleftheria Vounouki

Session II: Rural Tourism and Local Products

French Beef Production: Meat Quality, a Challenge for Farmer Practices	374
Stéphane Ingrand, Benoît Dedieu, Bénédicte Roche

Paths of Rural Development Based on Typical Products: a Comparison Between Alternative Strategies	384
G. Belletti, A. Marescotti, S. Scaramuzzi

Socio - Technical Construction of the Bovine Meat Origin In France	396
N. Tritf, F., Casabianca

Land Management to Develop Naturalistic Tourism	405
A. Pardini, M. R. Mosquera, A. Rigueiro

Session III: Environment and Sustainable Development

Farming systems and rural community welfare from an environmental perspective. A case study on agricultural nonpoint source pollution in Romania	412
Luiza Toma

Modeling Agroforestry Adoption and Household Decision Making in Malawi	422
P.H. Thangata, P.E. Hildebrand, C.H. Gladwin

An Operational System for Evaluating Sustainability of Organic, Integrated and Conventional Farming Systems	432
C. Pacini, G. Lazzerini, C. Vazzana, G. Giesen, A. Wossink

The contribution of banana cultivation to sustainable development: analysis by system of activity	444
Michel Dulcire, Philippe Cattan

Cover crop to improve vineyard ecology	455
F. Longhi, A. Pardini, S. Orlandini, M. Moriondo

Session IV: Quality of Life and Development Actors

The Contradictory Role of Local Non-Governmental Organisations in Rural Development - A Hungarian Case Study	464
Zsuzsanna Bacsi, Ferenc Zemankovics

The Emergence of New Actors in Rural Areas	475
A. Koutsouris, M. Castañón

Community Exchange And Learning Processes: A Case From Northern Sweden	484
Loes Heuff
Towards measuring quality of life in farming systems. A case from northern Thailand	494
Werner Doppler, Jirawan Kitthaicharoen
How changes in farmers' views of quality of life bring about structural changes: the case of farming in three marginal areas of Sweden	505
Helena N. Kallstrom

WORKSHOP 5

Learning processes in research and extension

Group I: Complementarities and differences between theories of learning and theories of action as frames for conceptualising learning, and the implications for practice

Intentional learning: interplays between farmers and service providers	515
M. Paine, S. Kenny
The contribution of experiential learning theories to the practice of participatory research and extension	523
R. Percy
Farming across the years: temporal and spatial dimensions of learning organic farming	536
L. Seppänen, H. Koskimies
An emerging practical theory to critically reflect and understand the role of collaborative learning processes for sustainable development of agriculture	546
M. Ljung
Learning about learning as systemic practice in the context of environmental decision making	556
C. Blackmore
Activity theory: an acceptable framework for analysing learning processes of New Zealand sheep farmers relating to decision-support software	564
R. Hill, N. Botha, P. Capper
From Multiple to Distributive Cognition: the Case of the Drentsche AA	574
N. Roling

GROUP II: Role of the researcher in the facilitation of learning, the confrontation of differing social conceptions, and the organisation of social spaces in which learning can occur

- Management advice for family farms. An extension process to help farmers of North Cameroon meet up challenges of professionalism 585
P. Djamen, M. Harvard
- Making the best use of limited resources: using participative action research to achieve fodder security with smallholder livestock farmers in Indonesia 594
H. Habibie, N. Sriskandarajah, R. Packham
- Interdisciplinary and systemic approaches in agricultural practices: bridging the gap between university and professional intervention 605
M.C. Plencovich, A. Bocchicchio, A. Fraschina, A. Ayala Torales
- Gaining Mutual Knowledge on Modes of Intervention: a Critical Learning Issue for Collective Action 616
M. Cerf, N. Couix, N. Girard, R. Teulier
- Innovations in the rural development research: the case of the production of high value timber in Chile 628
M. Loewe, O. M. Gonzalez
- Learning by Doing – Stakeholder Participation in Land Use Management: the Research and Development Project Grano 639
A. Dosch, V- Toussaint
- Some Reflections on a Knowledge Transfer Strategy: a Systemic Inquiry 647
Ray Ison

GROUP III: Learning approaches to the study and design of new standards and norms that promote and support ecological and environmental functions of agriculture

- Interpreting agri-environmental policy: a comparative analysis of policy implementation in Finland and the United Kingdom 657
M. J. Juntti
- The Emergence of Environmental Concerns in the Camargue: Re-Thinking a Reference Network in a Learning Tool for Stakeholders 667
F. Dreyfus, J.C. Mouret
- The Invisible Frontier: the Current Limits of Decentralization and Privatisation in Developing Countries 678
W.M. Rivera

Moving beyond the productivity paradigm – incorporating sustainability in forestry education in Denmark	687
S. Leth, N.Sriskandarajah
Developing a Toolkit for Assessing the Well-Being of Smallholder Organic Farmers and Plantation Workers	697
C. Rozel Farnworth
Facing the Gap Between Research and Practice in Danish Farming Systems: a reflection around the Case of Organic Poultry Production	708
L. Lisborg
Public goods and privatised extension: the rocky road towards agro-environmental extension	715
U.J.Nagel, K. von der Heiden, R. Siebert
Sustainable Poultry Meat Production Systems, Stakeholder-Based System Innovation	726
M.C. Van der Hulst-van Arkel, S.J.W.H. Oude Elferink, P.L.M. van Horne, A.C. Smits, P.W.G. Groot Koerkamp
GROUP IV: The study and improvement of new tools and methods for involving stakeholders (and non-participants) in learning processes, at a range of eco-system scales
Farmlets as Learning Platforms: a National Approach to Farming Systems Research, Development and Extension in the Australian Dairy Sector	730
M. Paine, J. Weatherley, A. Crawford, S. Champion
Technologies of Information and Communication: Use of The Internet in Rural Sociology	741
A. T. Couto, A.F. Goncalves
The Competencies of Advisors, the Result of a Learning Process	750
M. Slavik, E. Kriz
Technology Transfer to Private Farmers Through Competitive (Research) Grant Schemes in South East Europe	756
S. Andonov, T. Dishnica, M. Djordjevic, M. Mladenovski, I. Tarelli, U. Toic, A. van de Brock
Stakeholder Analysis in the Conversion to Organic Farming	765
T. Wehinger, B. Freyer, V. Hoffman
Combining Indigenous Knowledge and Agricultural Science Knowledge: a Case Study From Kisar Island, Indonesia	777
H. Jesajas. R. Packham
Synthesis Workshop 2 – Jacques Brossier	791
Synthesis Workshop 4 – Ana-Isabel García-Arias	793
